Many Thanks to Duane Hill for a Great Demonstration on the finer points of dyeing and coloring wood!

Also thanks to Lyndal Anthony for showing us his new turning tool.

This Month, we road trip to Steve and Carol Stevenson's for a tour of their museum and a hog roast! Don't miss it!

Can I bring my Cat?

The Prez Sez...

PrezSez

Hi there woodturners. It's me, Henry, again (woof). In case you don't remember me, I am Clyde's dog. I am now one year old and still very much a puppy. I love running around and helping out my dad, when I can. My mom is gone for 10 days, so no one is around to help dad type this up. I thought I would help him out and get this ready for the newsletter....Squirrel!

Sorry about that. Need to keep the darned squirrels in line. Where was I. Oh yeah, in case you haven't heard, Ansel had a fall heading out of the last meeting. He is home now and is chomping at the bit to get back to turning. He is also looking less and less like a raccoon. Raccoon! I love to chase them.

Also, on a sadder note, we lost a member this last month. Warren Stark passed away this past month. Our sympathies go out to his family and friends.

My dad said Duane did his usual excellent job with the demo on coloring your woodturnings. I wouldn't know because my dad wouldn't let me go. He also said you had 15 entries for the 2x4 challenge and there was a great selection of projects and ideas. What an Instant Gallery! Dad won't let me chew on any pieces he wants to put in the Gallery. I like to help dad by adding chewing embellishments to his turnings. He won't let me chew on any he wants to put in the Instant Gallery. Go figure, I'm sure they would look better. They certainly are fun to chew and taste great.

Your meeting at the Stevenson's is coming up this month on the 18th. If anyone still has questions on travel to and fro, contact one of the officers. While you are at it, put in a good word for my dad to bring me. I would love to go and help chase squirrels, pick up dropped food, etc. I am a good dog! Dad also says you need to bring doughnuts and desserts (don't forget doggie treats for me!).

Raffle tickets will be sold for the chuck that was donated by A-Line. The tool raffle will be held in June.

Dad asked me if I knew any St Bernard's. Apparently we need to have someone watch Jim Frank 24/7 to keep him out of trouble and available for the next meeting. He figures a St Bernard could help. I could watch him and lick his face once in a while to keep him out of trouble.

That's about it. Got to go chase more squirrels. Remember to lobby for me to attend some meetings and don't forget the doggie treats. Until next time, woof, woof, arf and wag (which is dog for keep those shavings coming). Also, arf, arf arf (keep safe). Henry

Odds and Ends and Stuff You Need to Know

2013 Calendar Events

May 18th—Stevenson Farm and Museum Demo by John Griffiths. Driving directions can be found on the last page of this newsletter.

June 15th—Rob Nelson on finials: Design, scale and balance

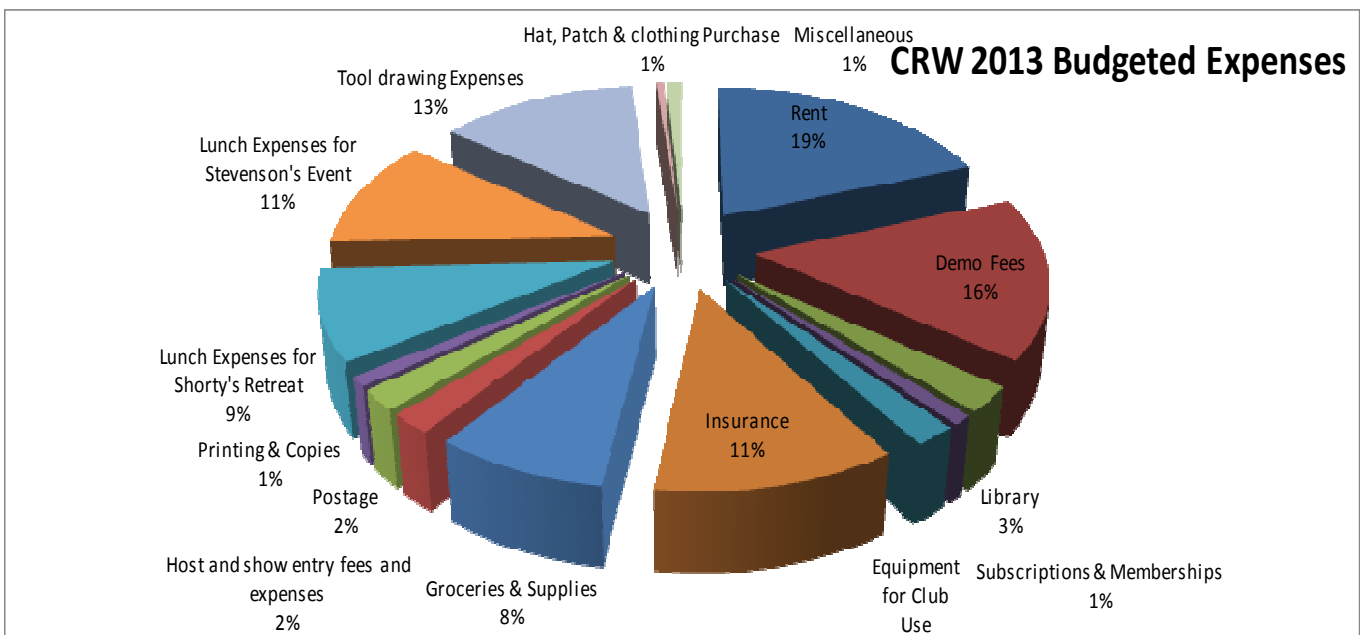

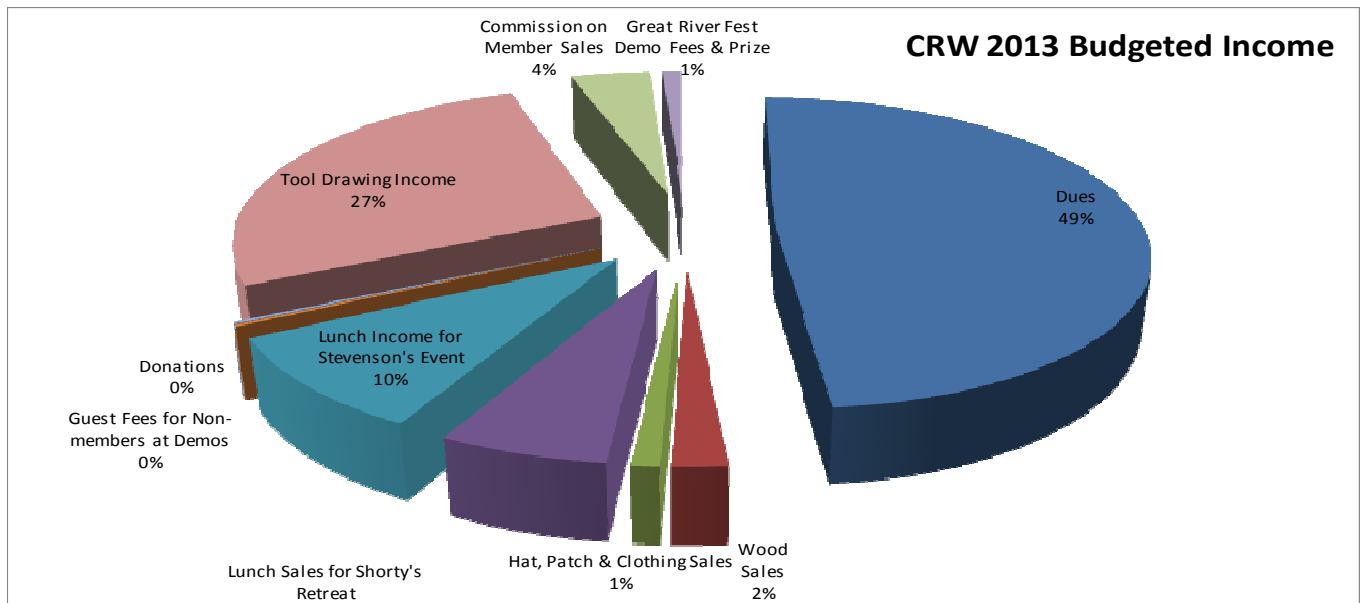

July 20th—Tool Day. More news to come.

July 2013—Norskedalen demo and sale. Get your projects started now.

August 17th—Shorty's Cabin—I'm hungry already

Follow the Money

There have been some questions about club dues and how those monies are used. These two pie charts were created to satisfy those questions. For additional clarifications, please contact our treasurer, John Griffiths, or one of the other club officers.

"A Turn For the Better"

Stevenson Farm Road Trip May 18th

The Stevensons will be preparing a hog roast for lunch during our visit. You can take a tour of their museum by viewing a youtube video here: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=dLYU1gGsx5k&feature=plcp> You can also check their website, <http://www.townofstevenson.com>. We will plan to carpool from the La Crosse/Onalaska area, but I have also included driving directions for people coming from other directions. Some carpools will be departing from the Sam's parking lot at 7:00am. Bob Raasch is looking for drivers. raaschb@charter.net 608 769 3833

May 18 meeting will be held at the Stevenson Farm and Museum in Richland Center. The address is 18798 Deere Path Lane, Richland Center, WI 608-538-3900. Directions: Take Hwy 14 South toward Richland Center. After entering Richland County, travel approx. 1/2 mile beyond Lowe Mfg, and turn LEFT onto CTY E. Continue on E for 6 miles, passing Sylvan and Sabin. Turn LEFT on English Ridge Road, and continue one mile to the Stevenson's. Deere Path Lane is next to Cournia Lane. If you are able, please bring along a desert to pass, and donuts for the dog. He's partial to chocolate, I understand.
